THE QUALITY OF MERCY.

Metropolitan Benevelence—Succey for the Wounded in the European Wax—The Found-lings—Hellef for Cuba—St. Anne's Church and Parochial Schools. Scarcely had the news of the frightful butchery of the first battles of the war now raging in France been published when our benevolent citizens com-menced the organization of societies for the purpose of collecting money and stores for the relief of the victims. American, German and French societies on, and although contributions for the sufferers the confict of arms was freely given, the charities at home were not forgetten. Below will be found notices of meetings, bazaars, and fairs now being poses:—

TAM RELIEF OF THE WOUNDED.

The American branch of the International Committee for the rolled of the Wounded in the Franco-Frussian war, known as the "American Association for Relief of Misery of Battle Fields," appeal to the Breame and generous for money to exact them to worthly second the efforts of the European organization in alle tailing the sufferings of the sufferers in France and Germany. Contributions in mency should be addressed to Howard Potter, banking monse of Erown Brothers, No. 61 Wall street. The Rev. Dr. Bellows is president of the association.

New YORK FOUNDLING HOSPITAL.

A grand instropolitan fair, under charge of the Staters of Charty, is now open at the Armory of the Twenty-second regiment, Fourteenth street, between Sixth and Seventh avenues. The proceeds are to be devoted to the erection of a permanent foundling asylum, the want of which is severely felt by the noble sixters, to whom the public owes omuch. The fair will be open until the 23d of next month. No more worthy enterprise commands the attention of the benevolent public to-day than this which the Flisters of Charity are so actively engaged in promoting.

St. ANNE'S CHURCH AND PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS.

The ladies of St. Anne's Church intend to held a fair at the Academy of Music, from Monday, 24th October, to Saturday, November 5, for the purpose of assisting in the erection of the new church and parochial schools. Besides the ordinary attractions of a fair Gradulla's band will give a concert every evering.

THE LADIES' RELIEF COMMITTEE.

At a meeting of ladies connected with the Church of the Heavenly lest on Thesday last an organization was formed for the purpose of collecting money for the construction fund of the church, the relief of the poor, and to perform such charitable and Christian work as may be within its power. The name of the organization is "the Ladies' Relief Association of the Church of the Heavenly Rest." Mrs. Ozden Hodman was elected directress, Mrs. J. C. Bache secretary, and Ars. Charles C. Lecus treasurer. The association intend to have a grand fair for the benefit of the Construction fund in December. An exhibition of wax work for the same object will be field on the 20th mst.

One of the most shocking cases of suicide ever known in Jersey occurred at four o'clock yesterday freenoon in Jersey City. A man named James Ficrin, employed in a jewelry establishment, went into a vacant lot at the corner of Monticello avenue his throat with such force that the windpipe, jugular voin and carotid artery were severed. The gash extended from ear to ear. The body was taken in charge by the police, and, Coroner Burgs being nellified, an inquest was commenced. From all the statements given in evidence it appears that the unfortunate man was addicted to drink to such an extent that it is believed he was crazy when he committed suicide. The inquest was adjouraed till to-morrow evening.
